

The NC Aquarium retained CapDev to help design and implement a successful $15 million campaign to expand the state's three aquariums. CapDev continues working again with the NC Aquariums for an even bigger campaign effort.

CAPITAL Development Services

“Capital Development Services has been a partner with the N.C.

Aquarium Society during two large capital campaigns spanning more than a decade. They have successfully guided us through both efforts and our relationship is wonderful. All that was expected and much, much more!”

Neal Conoley, President, N.C. Aquarium Society

CapDev successfully planned and implemented a $17 million campaign for renovations and endowment for Old Salem Museum & Garden's, the largest in its history.

“Capital Development Services has been a true asset to our capital campaign. We appreciate their team approach to client service. They have been most responsive to our requests and a valued partner.”

Ragan Folan, President & CEO, Old Salem Museums & Gardens

Arts & Culture

Museums of all types – art, children’s, science, history – to performing arts venues and area attractions, all fill unique roles in our communities. Our role is to help these organizations attract the support they need to continue and broaden their diverse contributions to our culture.

KNOWLEDGE • DEDICATION • RESULTS

From the basement of the NC Department of Agriculture building in Raleigh, Capital Development Services and the NC Museum of Sciences have partnered to inspire and attract over $40 million in two capital campaigns over 15 years to build the Southeast's largest and one of the country's most visited science museums.

“Our CapDev Counsel is wonderful and has meant everything to the museum and this campaign. Our success is due to their experience, guidance and support every step of the way.”

Bonnie Smith, retired Director of Development,
N.C. Museum of Natural Sciences
