“VES has enjoyed a fruitful relationship with CapDev for many years. They have completed successful projects to include feasibility studies, campaign strategic planning and consulting. Their team is experienced and professional and works well with a variety of personalities to include staff, trustees and campaign volunteers. We will certainly continue to call on them for guidance as we seek to reach new levels in our advancement program!”

CAPITAL Development Services

CapDev helped plan and implement a major new initiative with the Institute for Emerging Issues at NC State University, a successful $20 million campaign to launch the Emerging Issues Commons at the new James B. Hunt Library on NC State's Centennial Campus.

“CapDev was an essential partner in identifying and achieving our development goals. Their knowledge of the state, ability to engage key leaders, and vast experience in capital campaigns allowed the Institute for Emerging Issues to not just launch the Emerging Issues Commons, but to do so in a way that exceeded our expectations.”

Dr. Anita Brown-Graham, Institute for Emerging Issues at N.C. State University

Education

From the smallest charter school to some of our region's largest universities, CapDev joins with the teams of all kinds of academic institutions, complimenting the roles of development professionals, engaging leadership, and growing support.

KNOWLEDGE • DEDICATION • RESULTS

In partnership with several community colleges and many other colleges, universities and independent schools, Capital Development Services has assisted with executive search for senior level advancement and presidents.

“Replacing a long-tenured president is never easy. The integrity of the presidential search process - a partnership between the Board of Trustees and the search firm - is critically important in selecting the best candidate to lead and manage an educational institution. CapDev brought integrity and professional acumen to the search at Mitchell Community College that resulted in an excellent selection - a selection with both college and community-wide acceptance and enthusiasm.”

Kennon Briggs, former Chief of Staff, N.C. Community College System
