

Retained Executive Search Overview

CapDev's Executive Search Team provides a fresh and innovative approach to every search, combined with decades of working with nonprofit leaders to deliver dynamic senior-level staff to the nonprofit sector.

The Challenge

- Vacant positions, such as executive director, CEO, president, development directors, VP
- Time/cost devoted to continuously staffing top executive positions
- Limited pool of qualified candidates within organization's networks
- Passive market approach (advertising, posting)
- Specific nature of top executive/development positions not fully translated in HR
- Challenge to reach full potential candidate pool, esp. non-job hunters
- Need high tech & high touch: technology + aggressive customized market penetration

Retained Executive Search for senior-level nonprofit sector positions delivers national/regional penetration & customized research/networking in-depth screening of a qualified candidate pool close communication with search committee

CapDev's Retained Executive Search provides comprehensive in-depth research and targeted networking, delivering a high-degree of candidate screening for the nonprofit's competitive staffing marketplace, managed by our professional team.

Why Engage a Search Firm

- Save money
- Free staff from the intensive time commitment of a search
- Develop a comprehensive, marketable job description
- Target the appropriate candidate pool quickly and accurately
- Identify candidates the organization could not discover unassisted

Action Plan

- Communications with Search Team throughout search process
- Assist in developing/refining position announcement and job description
- Define target market for candidate pool
- Conduct original research to deepen potential candidate pools
- Develop candidate profile
- Design final ad language and select ad placements from CapDev recommendations
- Initiate search and develop process to receive and screen all resumes in a database
- CapDev utilizes regional and national links (such as LinkedIn), appropriate formal and informal networks, mass email announcements, etc.
- CapDev reviews all resumes and conducts pre-screening phone or video-conference interviews of qualified candidates
- CapDev presents 5-8 finalist recommendations; 3 are selected for interviews
- CapDev works with Search Team to schedule interviews and create itineraries
- Provide executive summaries and all materials for interviews of finalists
- Reference checks are provided
- Conduct post-interview meetings to select final candidate
- Background checks as needed

Costs

Generally cost is 30% of first year's salary, plus:

- Ad placement costs
- Travel, other approved expenses

Timeline

Usual total timeline for a retained executive search is four to five months.

Search Guarantee

If, within six months of a hire, the selected candidate is terminated for cause or resigns of his or her own accord, then Capital Development Services will recommence the search without requiring any additional fees other than direct expenses related to the search.

Why Use CapDev

- We marry clients' missions with passionate executives
- We consistently uncover dynamic, talented leaders
- We equip clients with the most comprehensive candidate profiles
- We emphasize in-depth communications with clients
- We recognize the fact that every search is unique
- We bring three decades of national network and broad experience